

YOUNG BOY: Sharing means that you're lending something to a friend that you're depending on them not to lose.

YOUNG BOY 2: Letting people use what you have.

LITTLE BOY: They give it back to you then you have it for a little while, then you give it right back to them too.

LITTLE GIRL: You put toys for people and then toys for me.

LITTLE BOY 2: I think sharing means to me --

LITTLE BOY 3: Giving, yes, giving.

LITTLE GIRL 2: Sharing means –
LITTLE BOY 4: Share things.

LITTLE BOY 5: Let somebody use it for like a minute and then take it back.

LITTLE GIRL 3: If you have a sandwich you give a half to them.

LITTLE GIRL 4: If one person wants to play with a toy and if they let you play with it they give you it.

LITTLE GIRL 5: Because that's what my mommy and daddy say.

YOUNG GIRL: Sharing, um, it can be good and bad, because if you're really hungry and you have to share you don't want to give up your cookie.
